Performed a complete Individual Case Safety Report (ICSR) assessment through a detailed pharmacovigilance case study. The activity involved identifying the suspected ADR, reviewing patient and medication information, assessing case validity, seriousness, severity, and causality, and understanding the appropriate reporting process. This provided practical exposure to the role and responsibilities of a Drug Safety Associate.